

2018 Patient Safety Crossword

Other tools available:

www.ASHRM.org/PatientSafetyWeek

Across

2. United States Pharmacopeia (abbrev.)
3. An event or situation that did not produce patient injury, but only because of chance
7. A strategy used to communicate important or critical information
11. An error in the phase of the medication use process where the drug product and patient interface
14. Signals for detecting likely adverse events

Down

1. This ASHRM award recognizes organizational excellence in patient safety and celebrates the efforts of risk management professionals in promoting patient safety across the health care enterprise
4. Graphic representation of data (alpha, numeric, or both) that is machine readable
5. A standardized method of communication between patient care providers including explanation of the situation, background, assessment and recommendations
6. American Society for Healthcare Risk Management (abbrev.)
8. Planned period of quiet and/or interdisciplinary discussion focused on ensuring that key procedural details have been addressed
9. Electronic Health Record (abbrev.)
10. A process or protocol by which the listener repeats key information back to the transmitter of the information, so that the transmitter can confirm its accuracy
11. An error that occurs at the point of contact
12. Interdependent elements (human and non-human) interacting to achieve a common aim
13. Patient safety training offered by AHRQ - Team Strategies and Tools to Enhance Performance and Patient Safety