

ASHRM ANNOUNCES NEW PREP MATERIALS FOR THE REVISED CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL IN HEALTHCARE RISK MANAGEMENT (CPHRM) EXAM

Chicago – The American Society for Health Care Risk Management is revising the Certified Professional in Healthcare Risk Management (CPHRM) exam prep materials in coordination with the new CPHRM examination specifications and the new CPHRM version of the exam that will launch Jan. 2, 2020.

CPHRM Exam

The American Hospital Association Certification Center (AHA-CC) designs and administers the CPHRM certification program to recognize mastery of well-defined bodies of knowledge within the health care risk management field. The AHA-CC conducted a job task analysis (JTA) in 2018-2019 to define the tasks, knowledge, and skill sets most pertinent to a risk manager's role. The CPHRM examination specifications and exam will be updated based on the results, and the new exam will launch Jan. 2, 2020.

An overview of the changes to the domains:
