

HRM WEEK CROSSWORD

ACROSS

- 6. Level of practice expected of a reasonably prudent clinician in similar circumstances, skipping "of"
- 8. High Reliability Organization, in short
- 10. Event that could have caused harm but did not
- 13. Insurance company owned by the insured organization
- 14. Patient Safety Organization, in short
- 16. Post-event method used to identify underlying system factors behind harm or near harm
- 17. U.S. Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, acronym
- 19. Demand for compensation due to alleged loss, injury, or damages
- 20. Safeguards that reduce risk (preventive, detective, or corrective)
- 21. U.S. law requiring emergency screening and stabilization regardless of ability to pay

DOWN

- 1. Proactive method to identify how a process might fail and reduce risk
- 2. U.S. health information privacy law, acronym
- 3. Protection against loss or legal responsibility (often via contract language)
- 4. Structured communication format: Situation, Background, Assessment, Recommendation
- 5. Process ensuring a patient understands risks, benefits, and alternatives before agreeing
- 6. Shared values and behaviors that prioritize safety and learning over blame
- 7. U.S. accrediting body commonly associated with sentinel event review expectations
- 9. Documentation submitted to capture a safety event, hazard, or near miss for review/learning
- 11. Systematic evaluation of likelihood and impact of a threat or hazard
- 12. Serious patient safety event that signals the need for immediate investigation/response
- 15. Threats to confidentiality, integrity, and availability of data/systems
- 18. High-level organizational rule or guiding document